

Site Management Safety Training Scheme (SMSTS)

Course Specification

Duration: 5 days

Attendees: Site Managers, Agents and persons who are, or are about to be, responsible for planning, organizing, monitoring, controlling and administrating groups of staff or workforce.

Objectives: This course is intended to give site managers, agents and others a clear understanding of how to manage health and safety on site, develop an understanding of responsibilities and accountability for site health, safety & welfare, and recognise that a safe site is efficient, economical and productive.

Content:

- Introductory and feedback on pre-course exercise
- Health and Safety Law (including exercise)
- Health and Safety and the Manager
- Working at Height and the working environment
- Management of contractors, plant, equipment and systems of work
- Managers and supervisors responsibilities (exercise)
- Health and Safety management and monitoring on site
- Site briefing exercise
- Health and Safety communication training
- Construction health and safety
- Site layout (exercise)
- Examination
- Close and debrief

Certification: ConstructionSkills Site Safety Plus: Construction Site Managers Safety Certificate

Notes: This course is endorsed by the United Kingdom Contractors Group (UKCG) as the standard training for all Managers working on UKCG sites.

Tel: 0115 979 4523 Fax: 0115 977 1228 E-Mail: safe@safetyaccess.co.uk (Ref 05/10)

www.safetyaccess.co.uk